

Hudak Announces MPP McKenna and Party President Zeise as Co-Chairs for 2012 AGM

Tues. Jan. 17, 2012 TORONTO –

As Ontario PC members prepare for the Party's 2012 Annual General Meeting, Burlington MPP Jane McKenna and outgoing president Ken Zeise will serve as co-chairs, Ontario PC Leader Tim Hudak said today.

"Jane has been a great addition to our Caucus. She's working day and night to find solutions that will create jobs and turn Ontario's troubled economy around. Jane also understands the challenges facing Burlington's small business owners. She's one of our bright new faces and will be a hit with the grassroots," Hudak said.

"Ontario PC President Ken Zeise will co-chair. Ken's dedication to our party is unwavering. Ken has served a total of 19 years on the Party's executive, in various volunteer roles, including four years as president. As an entrepreneur, he appreciates that our AGM is focused on job creation and economic growth."

"It's an honour to be co-chairing the 2012 AGM. This will be a chance for Tim Hudak and my caucus colleagues to listen to party members and hear their ideas on ways we can get Ontario working again," said McKenna.

"Unlike the do-nothing McGuinty Liberals, Tim Hudak and the Ontario PC Caucus have a plan to tackle our province's high unemployment and $16 billion dollar deficit. That's what this AGM is all about: jobs and the economy," said Zeise.

The 2012 AGM takes place from February 10-12 at the Scotiabank Convention Centre in Niagara Falls. Delegates will take part in a constitutional session, vote for a new Party executive and hear a keynote address by Tim Hudak.

Early bird registration closes January 24. For more information and to register visit OntarioPC.com.
